

Bike To Work Day!

Regional Parks FREE Park 'n' Ride Event

May 20, 2010

Free Parking!

On May 20, you can join the region-wide efforts to log a million miles of bicycle riding during May is Bike Month. In support of the month's events, the Department of Regional Parks is holding a Park 'N' Ride event, waiving parking fees for the day along four American River Parkway entrances:

- Lower Sunrise
- William B. Pond Recreation Area
- Sacramento Bar
- Howe Avenue Access

Free Energizer Stations!

From 6 a.m. to 10 a.m., energizer stations will be available at four locations along the American River Parkway:

- Lower Sunrise
- William B. Pond Recreation Area
- Mile Marker 8, near Guy West Bridge
- Howe Avenue Access

Tsai

These energizer stations will offer free coffee, juice and bagels to participants, donated by the American River Parkway Foundation.

Save Time and Money while supporting our region's beautiful parks and open spaces. Purchase an Annual Pass to Parks and it pays for itself after just 10 visits. All funds help keep the parklands clean and safe! Don't drive to our parks? Purchasing a Parks Supporter Pass is a great way to help keep the parks you love and enjoy. Passes are available for sale at energizer stations.

Win a Bike!

One lucky person who buys either an annual pass or a Parks Supporter Pass that day at the energizer station will win a bicycle valued at over $350 courtesy of Bicycles Plus! Visit www.sacparks.net or call 916-875-6961 for more information.
